

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY LEAGUE OF CITIES

March 7th Board of Directors' Meeting

This month's meeting was held at the 94th Aero Squadron Restaurant. We would like to thank all the attendees for their participation!

MARCH BOARD MEETING RECAP

President Rodney Harris, welcomed everyone to the March 7th Board of Directors meeting and asked MDCLC Board Member, Commissioner Walter Thompson of the City of Florida City to conduct the invocation. He then introduced Mayor Spencer Deno of the Village of Virginia Gardens to led us in the pledge of allegiance.

President Harris then asked 1st Vice President Karyn Cunningham to continue chairing the meeting.

The next item on the agenda is an important issue that is going to be heard by the Ethics Commission on their March 13th Commission meeting. Robert Meyers, from the law firm of Weiss Serota Helfman et al.... discussed COE opinion, which will virtually eliminate the ability of an elected official to do business in his/her city for a third party if it involves any type of interaction with staff of the official's government. Robert along with the League's City Attorneys Committee have been monitoring this issue. If any elected official would like to attend Robert asked that they call him.

Our Associate Members are a fundamental segment of our organization. This evening three of our associate members were given the opportunity to provide information about their organization. Mr. Raphael Garcia, Vice President & Relationship Manager, Ocean Bank. Ms. Claudia Miro, Director of Business and Government Affairs for Freebee. Ms. Adriana Verdeja, Executive Director of Government and Community Relations, University of Miami were the three associate members this month that made a presentation and provided materials that were placed in the agenda packages.

Executive Director Richard Kuper provided the Executive Director's Report. He also informed the guests of the upcoming Gala, that will be held on Saturday, June 8, 2024. Save the Date below!
